On July 21, 2025, the district court entered an order granting summary judgment in part to Appellees Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (CREW) and Protect Democracy Project, holding that Defendants, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and OMB Director Russell Vought, violated the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2022, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023, and the Paperwork Reduction Act's dissemination of information requirement by removing public access to the online Public Apportionments Database. See Dkt. 25-1051, ECF 32. The court ordered, among other things, that Defendants restore the Public Apportionments Database and make publicly available the apportionment information required by law to be disclosed. The court stayed its order until Thursday, July 23, at 10:00 am.

On July 22, Defendants filed a notice of appeal. On July 23, they moved this Court for an administrative stay and a stay pending appeal.

Appellees from each of the consolidated cases file this notice to inform the Court that they do not oppose entry of an administrative stay through Monday, July 28, at 2:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Daniel F. Jacobson
